4	PREFACE
9	CHAPTER 1 – PRIMARY TRIADS IN MAJOR AND MINOR 10 Chord construction • 12 Spacing and voice-leading in four-part harmony • 14 Primary triads • 16 Consonance/dissonance – resolution of the dominant seventh chord • 18 Tonality and harmonic rhythm • 20 Nonharmonic notes • 22 Cadences in major and minor keys • 24 The cadential suspension and cadential six-four
27	CHAPTER 2 – MORE CHORDS IN A MAJOR KEY 28 Secondary triads in major – VI and II • 30 Secondary triads in major – II and III • 32 Functional harmony • 34 Secondary dominants in a major key • 36 Functional harmony – categories for chord positioning • 38 Cadences in a major key • 40 Tonicisation in a major key – secondary cadence
43	CHAPTER 3 – CHORD INVERSIONS 44 Chord inversions – placement of bass notes in relation to the melody • 46 Inversions of the triad – first inversion • 48 Inversions of the triad – the second inversion chord • 50 Inversions of the dominant seventh chord • 52 Spacing/doubling of chords in inversion – Pedal point • 54 Incomplete dominant – VII
57	CHAPTER 4 – MORE CHORDS IN A MINOR KEY 58 Secondary triads in minor – VI • 60 Secondary dominants, III and \flat VII and extensions of V^7 in minor • 62 Cadences in a minor key • 64 Tonicisation in a minor key • 66 Incomplete ninth chord – VII ⁷ • 68 Use of the incomplete ninth chord – inversions • 70 Incomplete ninth chord with subdominant function and as an appoggiatura and passing chord
73	CHAPTER 5 – EXPANDED HARMONY IN MAJOR AND MINOR 74 Seventh chords • 76 Sequences – cycle of 5ths • 78 Other types of sequences – 4th-2nd sequence and fauxbourdon • 80 Deceptive cadence – repeated ending • 82 Deceptive (irregular) resolutions • 84 Mixture in a major key • 86 Chords using the sharpened 6th degree in a minor key • 88 Mixture in major/minor keys • 90 Nonfunctional chord progressions in functional harmony • 92 Diatonic and chromatic mediant relationships • 94 Diatonic and chromatic mediant relationships cont. • 96 Chords a 2nd apart • 98 Expansion using position $\textcircled{3}$ chords • 100 The 6th degree in the bass in a major key – neighbour notes around a dominant axis

103 CHAPTER 6 – EXTENDED/ALTERED CHORDS AND EXPANDED TONALITY

104 The Neapolitan 6th – flatten 2nd degree of the scale • 106 \flat II in root position and 2nd inversion – Other chords containing the \flat 2 degree of the scale • 108 The dominant 9th chord • 110 Altered chords – the augmented 5th • 112 Altered chords – lowered 5th and 9th • 114 The augmented 6th chord ($\text{sub}V^7/V$) • 116 The augmented 6th chord – resolution and inversions • 118 Half cadence in major and minor • 120 11th and 13th chords (without 9th) – $V^{\text{sub}6\text{th}}$ • 122 Melodic dissonance • 124 Expanded nondominant chords • 126 11th and 13th chords with a 9th

128 Complex alterations in the dominant chord • 130 Chords above a common bass note • 132 Leading note chords • 134 Diminished triad/7th chord as a leading note chord • 136 Motion in triads and 7th chords • 138 Modulation – diatonic • 140 Diatonic modulation – mixture and chord progressions a 2nd apart • 142 Enharmonic modulation – V_{\flat}^9 , $V^{\sharp}5$ and $V^7/\text{sub}V^7/V$ • 144 Chromatic modulation – abrupt and leading note modulation • 146 Temporary modulation to remote keys and expansion of a chord • 148 Other types of modulation

151 CHAPTER 7 – 20TH CENTURY HARMONY

152 Changes in the concept of dissonance • 154 Harmonic movement creating unity • 156 Quartal and quintal harmony • 158 Modal harmony • 160 Modal harmony and scales • 162 Modal technique – whole-tone scale • 164 Synthetic scales • 166 Scales derived from folk music, including tri-, tetra-, penta- and hexatonic • 168 Polytonality – polychords • 170 Superimposed seconds • 172 Chords with added notes • 174 Twelve-tone technique • 176 Twelve-tone – Total serialism • 178 Musical texture

181 Voice-leading rules throughout history

189 Appendix

200 Figured bass • 202 The theory of functions • 204 Schenkerian analysis • 206 Harmonic reduction • 208 Alternate doubling • 210 The interval between melody and bass • 212 Chord symbols • 214 Roman numerals • 216 Intervals and scales • 218 Literature • 219 Index

Explanation of the following symbols in the workbook: $\textcircled{\text{A7}}$ = notate your choice of chord using chord symbols

$\textcircled{\text{IV}}$ = analyse using Roman numerals $\textcircled{\text{♪}}$ = play the music example.

The symbol \emptyset directly after the title of the piece indicates that the score is incomplete.

I, II, III, IV after the title of the piece indicates the movement of the piece.
